COMPETITION— A BIG ROLE AT BHS

Throughout high school, competition plays a major role—whether its winning that all-important homecoming game or competing against oneself in a struggle to pass that course you thought would never end.

In any competition, defeat and victory must be taken in stride—of course, victory, as we all know, is far easier to accept.

Life, too, has its successes and failures, each hopefully giving way to a greater drive for perfection. The Games We Play provides a fitting theme for the 1978 BIM bringing to mind the successes, the failures, and, above all, the hard work and fun as we reached for victory in all the games we played.

Injuries and Inexperience Ruin Bulldogs' Season

The Bulldogs had an unfortunate run of luck this season with a record of two wins and seven losses. They began the year with a 31-6 victory over Moweaqua but another win wasn't until Homecoming when they held Newman in a score of 7-6.

Several injuries occurred during the season causing Joe Thompson, Gary Harvey, and Steve Pruitt to be "benched" mid-season.

Tim Tracy was chosen, by the team, Most Valuable Player and shared the co-captain honor with Dan Becker. Jeff Roberts received the honor of Best Blocker and the Most Tackles. Kevin Phipps was chosen Most Improved Player.

This was a young team with only six seniors and not a lot of experience, but they hope to make up for it next year.

Season Disappoints Underclassmen

This year Bement's J.V. and Freshmen teams had a disappointing season winning only one game out of twelve. Even though they only won one game, most of the J.V. games were close. The Freshmen, however, were totally out-classed except at Villa Grove. The J.V. record was 1 and 6; they beat Atwood Hammond. The A-H team had beaten the Freshmen twice during the year. The J.V.'s like the Varsity, had quite a few injuries to key sophomores who could have possibly made the season record better. Three of the players injured were Mike Flavin, Nick Manalisay, and Jeff Bradley. These three along with John Bentley, Chuck Price, and Brett Phipps dressed and played on the Varsity Squad.

The annual staff put a lot of time and effort into the 1978 yearbook. We hope you enjoy the yearbook as much as we did working on it.

Special thanks go to Peggy Wright for all the pictures she took and also to all the other photographers.

We would also like to thank our sponsor, Merle Taylor, for all his help.
